Roasted Butternut Squash Powder

We are pleased to introduce our latest product - Roasted Butternut Squash Powder. Butternut Squash are vine grown and the orange fleshy interior pulp has a sweet and nut-like taste. Our Roasted Butternut Squash Powder eliminates the labour-intensive steps of peeling, seed removal, dicing, and roasting. You will immediately appreciate the flavour, aroma and unique colour of this exclusive product.

Add the Roasted Butternut Squash Powder to your cream soups and sauces for instant flavour and colour. Curry and ginger are two of many spices that complement squash very well.

Combine the Roasted Butternut Squash Powder with mashed potatoes to add a unique twist to a staple item, especially when piped through a pastry bag and broiled.

Perfect for making your own pasta or as a pasta filling, the Roasted Butternut Squash Powder is also well suited to couscous and risotto.

Create a colourful coulis for both decoration and flavour with the Roasted Butternut Squash Powder.

This powder is perfect for adding to baked goods such as breads and muffins. It can also be used to create a unique and delicious soufflé.
